

Indiana Renewable Energy

For Windiana 2011/IREC Attendees

August, 2011

We're Glad You Were There.

Windiana 2011 and the Indiana Renewable Energy Conference was held July 20-21, 2011 at the Indiana Convention Center in Indianapolis. Pictures, Program Agendas and presentations are available for download by clicking here.

Keep The Issues Moving Forward.

While Windiana and the Indiana Renewable Energy Conference happens but once a year, you can continue to be involved in renewable energy issues in Indiana by taking part in the Indiana Wind Working Group, the Indiana Solar Energy Working Group and the Indiana Biomass Working Group. Follow these groups through Energy.In.gov.

Thanks for Being a Part of Windiana 2011 and the Indiana Renewable Energy Conference

It was another great year for the conference, with about 500 people taking part. This year included the expansion into other renewable energy technologies. This year's sessions and workshops were some of the best ever, and we would like to thank each and everyone of you for taking part.

Catch Up With Anything You Missed.

Did you want to know about a session you couldn't get to? Want a copy of a great presentation? Over 40+ presentations are available for download at Energy.In.gov. Click here to go to the download page. Program Agendas are available there as well.

Thanks to All our Wonderful Exhibitors and Sponsors

Windiana 2011 and the Indiana Renewable Energy Conference would not exist without the support of sponsors and exhibitors. There were 50 exhibitors on the floor this year. See who was there by clicking here.

Speakers Ruled at WIndiana 2011

No, Seriously. What Did You Think?

We won't be sending out a survey this year, but that doesn't mean we don't want to know what you think. If you have thoughts about WIndiana and the Indiana Renewable Energy Conference, good or bad, email those thoughts to eburch@oed.in.gov.

WIndiana/IREC 2012?

While it's true WIndiana does not appear listed on the Mayan calendar, that doesn't necessarily mean we won't be back in 2012. The organizers of WIndiana 2011 have some interesting thoughts about what might happen in 2012, and we'll let you know soon what might be in store.

The Office of Energy Development (OED) was created in December 2005 as an extension of the Indiana energy office. Under the leadership of Lt. Governor Becky Skillman, OED is responsible for the state's energy policy. For more information visit www.energy.in.gov, or follow OED on twitter, IndianaEnergy.
